Student jobs from top brands

We're pleased to share that Employment 4 Students (e4s) has recently launched a fully redesigned platform, making it even easier for students to find part-time jobs, holiday work, apprenticeships, internships and graduate opportunities.

Students can now upload their CV to their e4s profile, making them visible and searchable by employers. Instead of only searching for vacancies, students can now be directly matched with and invited to apply for roles that suit their skills, interests and experience.

This update means less time spent searching and more opportunities coming to students, helping to simplify the job-hunting process.

The service is completely free to use, and both new and existing users can create an account to access the updated platform.

e4s can be accessed here: <https://www.e4s.co.uk/>
