Appointment of assessors of candidates with learning difficulties: Statement 2026-27

The Access Arrangements assessor at Royds Hall Academy is a member of school staff and their qualifications are held on record and available for ream access inspection. The current assessor has a Level 7 PGCERT dyslexia qualification, including at least 100 hours relating to individual specialist assessment" which they gained whilst under the employment of Royds Hall Academy. The school do not use or accept any other assessments for access arrangements from private sources. Assessments are carried out within the school.

The Head of Centre is responsible for checking qualifications of assessors, in conjunction with the SENCO. Prior to appointment to post, the Access Arrangements assessor must present evidence of successful completion of a post-graduate course in individual specialist assessment at or equivalent to Level 7.
